

Company of Women

Membership Categories

As part of your membership in Company of Women, you are currently entitled to one listing in the online directory.

Recognizing that your business may fit under several categories, we are introducing an extension to the number of categories each business can go under.

Each member will have the opportunity to list their business under a maximum of four categories, at a cost of $10 + GST for each additional category.

If you would like to take advantage of this promotional opportunity, please complete and return this form. You can check the website for the different categories available.
